NATIONAL BREASTFEEDING MONTH

While the official latch on was postponed until next April, local coalitions & IBCLC's carried on with the tradition of celebrating breastfeeding for World Breastfeeding Week.

Wichita Falls had an event for moms an Annual Breastfeeding Celebration.

Several IBCLC's joined forces to host a Party at the Park to celebrate Breastfeeding in Rockwall.

Waco & Austin both had a Latch-On event at the local Farmers Market, and Corpus Christi had an entire week of celebrations.

The last week of August is Black Breastfeeding Week. Let's end this month of breastfeeding celebration strong!
